THE CULT OF LHO FLOURISHES

★

HOW NOT TO, Dept.: Ex-soldier Robert F. Squillan, 23, disgruntled about discharge from Army, is indicted in Washington District Court on charges of mailing threat to kill President Johnson. Squillan, broken out of service following conviction for interstate auto theft, wrote threat from Rome, then borrowed plane fare from U. S. Consul, who obligingly put him on non-stop flight to New York before cabling FBI to pick him up at JFK Airport on arrival.

N.Y. J-A ★ 11-30-65(2:1)